Founder's Message

Marc Ang

Dear AIB Supporters,

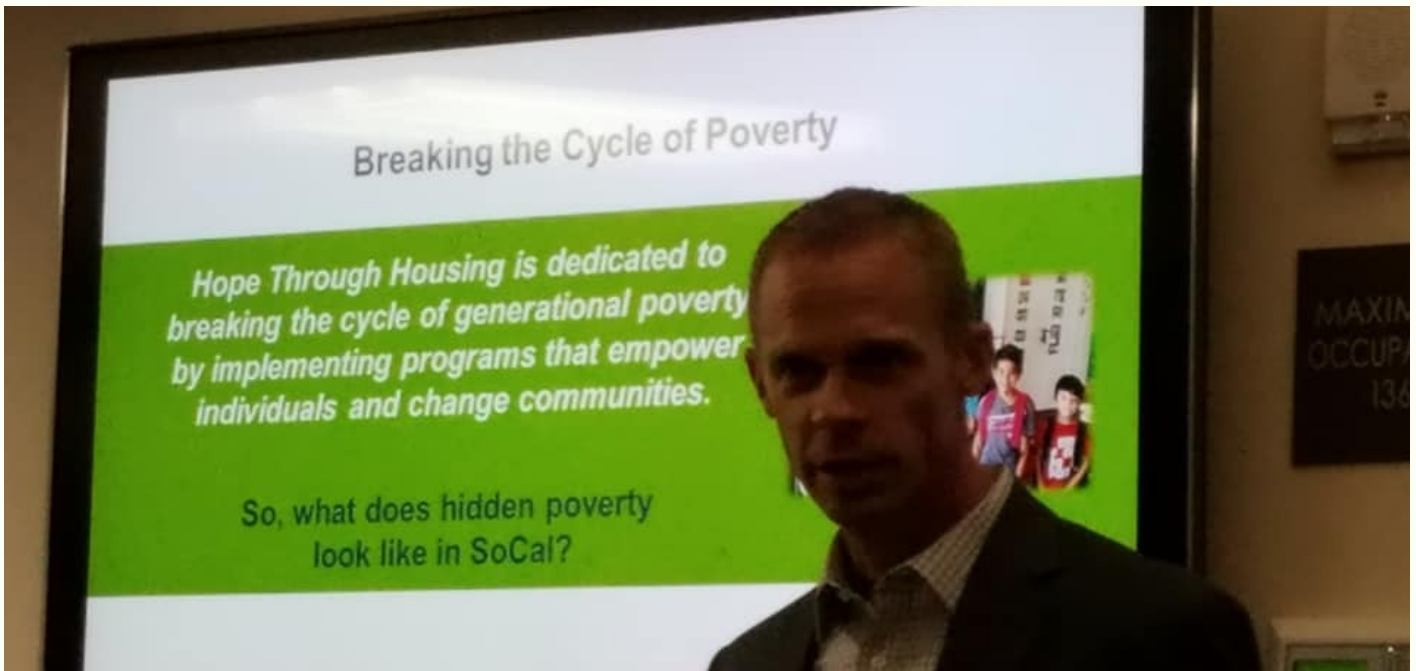

As we clock in our 1 year anniversary, we decided to have a month full of events. It was like one big celebration, all month, nonstop.

Our September 12 mixer drew a nice crowd of about 60 despite being a repeat program (with a slight twist) of Hope Through Housing Foundation. This time the location was at their property in Yorba Linda.

We also hosted a special meet and greet for our good friend and next Congresswoman Young Kim on September 21. Over 70 showed up for this event at my home. It was a real team effort to make this a great event to showcase Young's compelling background as a South Korean immigrant and the success she has built by networking in the community. What an inspiration!

Finally, on September 28, we showcased the movie "Trafficked" with a community panel pre-movie and a cast/crew panel post-movie. This great event in Glendale drew over 75 people of all ages, and inspired everyone in the room.

This month, on October 10, is our immigration mixer. See you then!

SEPTEMBER MIXER: HOPE THROUGH HOUSING

Featuring Gregory Bradbard, CEO of Hope Through Housing, a beautiful property in Yorba Linda and our sponsor Wells Fargo spoke about their community work

We were supposed to take a break in August but instead, Russell talked me into splitting our mixer in two installments, to feature two awesome Hope Through Housing properties. This proved to be a great idea as we spread the word about HTHF and National CORE to two counties and different groups of people.

Our program started off with Chi Ni, our great emcee, then Linda Nguyen of Wells Fargo speaking on philanthropy. Gregory Bradbard then spoke on the work of HTHF and National CORE, which helps rehabilitate low income residents into the workforce and to lead meaningful lives, achieved through programs such as dietary counseling.

We want to thank our sponsor Wells Fargo and HTHF, who hosted us and provided food for everyone, and to all our attendees for listening to this great program and to see the work HTHF does.

OC ASIAN BUSINESS EXPO: KACOC

Ho-El Park's leadership and the Korean Chamber produced results by bringing the best out of the committee of leaders, to drive a huge turnout. Hundreds in attendance.

It truly takes a village. We have seen many expos. We have seen many collaboration efforts. Ho-El Park produced results, by leading like a true boss. Focusing on productivity, regular communication and picking the right team were essential.

Special thanks to Dustin Lam, who is a wonderful photographer and supporter of the Asian community organizations. We love you.

The event was emceed by Marc Ang and it featured Michelle Steel and Mayor Virginia Vaughn of Buena Park in the opening ceremonies. We then heard from three entrepreneurs including Theo Lee of K-Pop Foods, Yvon Lux and Sonny Nguyen of 7 Leaves.

We want to thank all the wonderful committee members such as Ngoc Tinh Nguyen, who in her own right, has run amazing events, leveraging leaders.

MEET AND GREET WITH YOUNG KIM

Raziel Arcega and Marc Ang collaborated to bring Young Kim to the Asian business community, to address business needs and concerns with our next Congresswoman.

It was a wonderful evening as Young Kim came to Marc Ang's home to meet Asian Industry B2B members. Young got to interact with a cross section of young entrepreneurs, established small businesses and our corporate sponsors in attendance, such as Wells Fargo and Southern California Edison.

The event opened up with bipartisan endorsements from Marc Ang and Raziel Arcega, who have known Young Kim for years in the business community, through her many years of loyal service to our current representative, Ed Royce, and Young's own career as an assemblywoman.

Many of our members also spoke on our experiences with Young and endorsements from Mitchell Ing, a Democratic councilman from Monterey Park and many faith leaders, who are ready to spread the word about the first Korean American congresswoman!

Thanks a bunch to our brother Jimmy Liu for driving the shuttle.

"TRAFFICKED" SCREENING IN GLENDALE

Marc Ang and Raziel Arcega collaborated to bring this powerful movie to the community, with a community panel and a movie panel that inspired and informed.

Special thanks to co-chair Shawn Herz and venue sponsor, USC Verdugo Hills Hospital (specifically Purnima Panchal and Kerri Yoder). This event allowed us to share this important movie and facts about human sex trafficking.

Our community panel featured current Glendale police chief Carl Povialitis, retired Sergeant from LAPD, Burton Brink, psychologist Deborah Vinall and Tracy Nielsen, from 501c3, Treasures, who shared important info about their work with survivors.

The movie was then shown and after, there was a movie panel, featuring the executive producers of the film, producer Conroy Kanter and actresses, Jessica Obilom and Alpa Banker, who played two of the main characters in the film.

A movie and two powerful panels inspired and informed
