Dear AIB2B Supporters:

Founder's Message

Marc Ang

Only a few spots left for the expo. We are at 1,000+ RSVPs (approaching 1,100) and all our tables are sold. Only a few "bring your own table" slots remain.

Last month, we had a dozen events impacting hundreds of people. See below for all the highlights.

See you on Wednesday for the big day! Diamond Bar Center. 5 pm. (4 pm if you're a vendor)

5/1: Newport Beach Film Festival

AIB2B and Marc Ang supporting Chinese film at the 20th Annual Newport Beach Film Festival with good friends Ben Yu and Jacob Wu, and Donald Suxho who we met at the after party.

5/3: Yakult Factory Tour

Touring the Yakult Factory in Fountain Valley was a unique, members only experience. They were introduced to the world of probiotics and saw how they can be incorporated as a healthy part of their diets.

5/7: Santa Ana Pastors Fellowship at Greater Light Missionary Baptist Church

An amazing faith committee meeting in Santa Ana thanks to the leadership of AIB2B member Rosie Avila and a special thanks to our good friend Pastor Gale Oliver for hosting this event at Greater Light church.

5/7: AIB2B & SoCal Comida Presents "Yu Garden"

Yu Garden is a hidden gem in the city of Orange. Today AIB2B and SoCal Comida collaborated to help save the hardworking owner and chef of Yu Garden who are dedicated to growing their business with quality food and white glove customer service. Come and help out this five-star review restaurant!

5/8: Monthly mixer Alzheimer Association

AIB2B is proud to partner with the Alzheimer's Association of Orange County, where we featured an informative session about Alzheimer's where our members learned how to recognize this silent killer. Thank you to, Daniel Gaytan of Alzheimer's Association who gave ways for us to help, as well as pioneer in Alzheimer's research, Messias Soares of CBio, and Bill Preston, a social entrepreneur at Roots Worldwide, LLC. Also thanks to Benjamin Yu for the delicious food!

5/11: Ling Ling Chang State Senate 2020

AIB2B supports our good friend Senator Ling Ling Chang to run again for State Senate in 2020. Thank you Ling Ling Chang for always being a great help to our community.

5/14: Voice of Immigrants at OC College

AIB2B was invited to discuss the topic of immigration. Various speakers from different ethnicities expressed their unique perspectives on current policies. It was a great time to take a break from mainstream media and get a lesson directly from these impactful individuals

5/15: Sex Education Mixer

AIB2B was invited to discuss the topic of Sex Education in our schools. A few speakers highlighted how the new curriculum is going to effect what is taught. It was a very informative session where everyone learned a lot about how the law will impact their child's education.

5/17: Spanish Sex Education

Such a wonderful night in Coachella with great speakers and organizers. Times have changed and so has our curriculum. The new education format may not reflect our values in the community today and we need more and more groups from different backgrounds to learn more about these issues.

5/18: Trafficked North OC

After successful showings in LA, San Bernardino and South OC, we continued to change attendees' lives and perspectives by bringing "Trafficked" to North OC. We will continue screening trafficked and keep fighting to end human trafficking.

5/21: AIB2B Presents Temecula Valley Mixer at STAT Horse Sanctuary

AIB2B hosted the launch of STAT Horse Sanctuary in Temecula valley. It was a unique business networking experience and showcased our focus on philanthropy. A huge thank you to Joell Ortizz, Cindy Boeing and Manolojolinsky for everything you did, and your love for the community and our mission. It is always great to support local small business.
