Veterans Gala 2019

FULLERTON, CA

On Saturday November 16, we hosted a full house for our annual Gala. In attendance were Senator Ling Ling Chang, Assemblyman Steven Choi, Council Members Peggy Huang, Sandy Rains and Barry Cooper. Our table sponsors included Wendy Dickinson, Benjamin Yu, Hon. Betty Tom Chu, Lloyd Boucher, H-Saga, Minutemen Transport, Wells Fargo, The Lincoln Club of Orange County, Dongchen International Education, Ninestars and Irvine America. We also had the opportunity to honor veterans from the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines with quilts from Quilts of Valor. We concluded the night by celebrating the Congressional Gold Medal Bill which honors Chinese Americans who served in the United States military during World War II, a group that was previously forgotten. We also generated enough funds in our silent auction thanks to donors like Wendy Dickinson, Cynthia Martinez, Dann Vail, Donald Suxho, Pattie Roberts, Deanne Tate, Daniel Chia, Charlene Chou, and Eva Garcia. All proceeds went to benefit Words of Comfort, Hope and Promise, and Congressional Gold Medal recipients.

"Unplanned" & Candid Discussion on Abortion

COSTA MESA, CA

On November 13, AIB collaborated with the College Republicans at Orange Coast College to host a private screening of the blockbuster movie "Unplanned" and a panel discussion on abortion. Students and activists alike attended including Feminists for Life.

Now more than ever, it is crucial to have these open conversations on college campuses. An adage reads "if you haven't been offended, then you haven't been educated." We believe that on the college level, all ideas should be challenged and only then are students graduating with a better sense of self and responsibility. In our organization, we welcome people with all different ideas to come and be challenged.
