Lunar New Year Celebration with the Agua Caliente Clippers

ONTARIO, CA

On January 26, AIB was the title sponsor of the Lunar New Year Celebration at the Toyota Arena for the Agua Caliente Clippers. Over 200 people attended through AIB. Before the game started, Victorville Taekwondo and Chinese dancers performed for the crowds in the patio area. Chino City Councilman Paul Rodriguez spoke on the importance of community and unity. Before tip off, Olympians Donald Suxho and Ding Ding Wu presented the game ball. Throughout the event, we honored nonprofit Santa Clause Inc. and businesses like H-Saga, Nine Stars, and Chain Venture.

"Trafficked" Screening at the Frida Cinema

SANTA ANA, CA

January 11 was National Human Trafficking Awareness Day. AIB partnered with the Women's Club of Fullerton to bring awareness to modern day slavery by screening the film "Trafficked" and presenting a panel discussion of the atrocities of human trafficking and what we can do as a community. On the panel were Jen Jeffcoat, an anchor at CBS, Bishop Gale Oliver, trafficking rescuer, Andrea Espino, WTLC Trafficking Specialist, Kendra Tankersley-Davis, Program Manager at Crittenton, Conroy Kanter, the producer of "Trafficked", Detective Tori Chandler, Fullerton Police Department, and Daniella Hall, survivor. Hundreds attended from all walks of life to mobilize against human trafficking which exists even in Orange County.

Shaolin Kung Fu Performance IRVINE, CA

Shaolin Temple recently joined AIB as a member. They are based out of Irvine, CA. OC Shaolin Kung Fu offers training in traditional Shaolin Kung Fu, one of the oldest and most famous styles of martial arts. Shaolin Kung Fu embraces defensive and offensive combat skills. Assemblyman Steven Choi presented a certificate to recognize Master Shi Yanqing and his business for their positive contributions to the community. Spectators were also provided snacks and given a demonstration of what is to be expected from training there.

Matching Veterans to Help Build the LA Rams Stadium IRVINE, CA

We recently partnered with VeteranStrong Network (VSN) through Jesse Medina. With Jesse's help, we are pushing for veterans to receive skills training to help build the new LA Rams Stadium in Inglewood, Los Angeles. VeteranStrong focuses on helping veterans transition into the workforce by giving them applicable skills that translate into stable jobs. If you know any veterans that are in immediate need of a job, please contact Jesse at jesse.medina@veteranstrong.me
