ENGAGING QUALITY PROFESSIONALS TO IMPACT COMMUNITIES

OUR MISSION IS SIMPLE

CHARITABLE

Connecting our members with the most high-integrity charities to perform "random acts of kindness".

CULTURAL

Pushing for fair representation of Asians in print, online, movies and television, ending negative stereotypes.

POLITICAL

Pushing for more Asian Americans in government, furthering our family and pro-business values.

"TRAFFICKED" SCREENING

SANTA ANA, CA

"Trafficked" a film produced by Conroy Kanter, is the basis for one of AIB's biggest initiatives: to fight against sex trafficking.

We have been on a hiatus due to government restrictions but we came back stronger than ever this year with our first screening at the Frida Cinema in Santa Ana.

As always, we have a panel to educate and empower attendees to be the catalyst for change.

This round, we had Christina Mantayla, South Coast College Community Advocate, survivor Shari Ho, and the Anaheim police.

HELPING OTHERS

BY ANALIA ANDERSON

God blesses us so we may be a blessing to others for His glory. When we have the opportunity to help others, respond to that call. God will always provide for us to do so, reward us later in unexpected ways, or compensate us many times over. Our motives should not be selfish—expecting favors in return from the people we help, some kind of gain, and even brownie points from God. He knows our hearts. He wants us to give when we don't have the means, trusting Him to make a way. He even wants us to give when it is all that we have...just like the woman in the bible who gave her last 2 coins. (Mark 12:41-43) More importantly, He wants us to give out of a thankful heart for what He's given us. There is great joy in giving and seeing other people's needs and desires met with provision, resources and opportunities. People may not know who God is, but they will see Him in us and draw near to Him through our kindness. There will be times when we get taken advantage of and taken for granted, but again, it is God who will reward us. We want to be used by Him, but may get upset when we feel used. Praise Him for being in the position of abundance and not in need (although we will all experience lack, loneliness and desperation to teach us humility and gratitude). So be grateful when we are the head more often than the tail, above more than we are beneath. God is great! Express His goodness with the outpouring of love and blessings onto others! He is faithful!

“Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. As it is written: “They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor; their righteousness endures forever.” Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God. This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of the Lord’s people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God. Because of the service by which you have proved yourselves, others will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else. And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you. Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!”—2 Corinthians 9:6-15.
